NARRATIVE of the LIFE of

OLAUDAH EQUIANO,

or

GUSTAVUS VASSA,

THE AFRICAN.

WRITTEN by HIMSELF.

–With an elegant PRINT of the AUTHOR; and a plate shewing the manner in which he was ship–wrecked.

The kind reception which this Work has met with from many hundred persons of all denominations, demands the Author’s most sincere thanks to his numerous friends; and he most respectfully solicits the favour and encouragement of the candid and unprejudiced friends of the Africans.

The General Magazine and Impartial Review, for July 1789, characterizes this Work in the following terms:–“This is a ‘round unvarnish’d Tale’ of the chequered adventures of an African, who early in life was torn from his native country by those savage dealers in a trade disgraceful to humanity, and which has fixed a stain on the legislature of Britain. The narrative appears to be written with much truth and simplicity.–The Author’s account of the manners of the natives of his own province (Eboe) is interesting and pleasing.”

The Book may be had of the Author at Mr. [William] Tuke’s Casltegate, and of Mr. [Robert] Spence in Ousegate, York.
