Enclosures in Sir G. Lowry Cole's Letter.

(Enclosure, N° 1.)

LETTER from E. A. Draper, Registrar of Slaves, to the Honourable
A. W. Blane, Esq. Acting Chief Secretary, &c.

SIR,

Slave Registry Office, Port Louis, Sept. 2, 1826.

IN obedience to the directions conveyed in your Letter of the 20th ultimo, I have the honour to transmit a General Return of Slaves belonging to the Estate of Bel Ombre, commencing with the Census taken in 1815, and comprising the Triennial Returns of 1819 and 1825, with the different names of Proprietors, and the Mutations during the period therein specified.

In 1822 the Triennial Recensements were refused at this office, in consequence of incongruities in the preceding Returns of 1819, and not rectified. These errors may be attributed, in some degree, to the non-declaration of sales and transfers at this office when they actually took place, and which, from subsequent deaths and the absence of parties, has produced irretrievable confusion.

The enclosed Returns and detailed Statements are conformable to the existing registers of this office, and to the Recensements furnished by the Bel Ombre establishment, the managers of which, during Mr. Telfair's absence in England, about two years, appear not to have used due diligence and exactitude in making out their returns; for, on reference to Mr. Telfair's description-book of Slaves, there appears much regularity, and an observance of the most minute forms in describing the negroes, their parentage and castes.

I have, &amp;c.

(signed)      E. A. Draper,
Registrar of Slaves.

The Honourable

A. W. Blane, Esq.
Acting Chief Secretary, &c.

To Sir Robert Barclay, Collector of the Interior Revenues.

Sir, Civil Commissariat, District of La Savanne, 10th August 1826.

IN reply to your letter of the 31st of last July, respecting the inaccuracy which you observed in the recensement of the estate of Bel Ombre for the year 1820, which the civil commissary, my predecessor at that period, had received, the researches which I have made on that subject, in all the papers and registers of the time in my commissariat, give no information on the subject; and there will be no possibility of obtaining any elucidation, except by applying to the proprietor.

I only see in one paper of recensements of that year (1820), which were kept in triplicate, that 426 slaves were declared as the total amount, without any description; and I have the honour to inform you, Sir, that I can find no other detail on that subject.

I have the honour to be, Sir,

Your very humble and obedient servant,

COPY of a Letter addressed to Mr. Telfair, the present Proprietor of Bel Ombre, by the Acting Chief Secretary to Government.

Sir,                      Chief Secretary's Office, Port Louis, Sept. 12th, 1826.

HIS Excellency the Governor having, in pursuance of instructions from the Right honourable the Secretary of State in the Colonial Department, required to be prepared returns from the rolls of the collector of internal revenue, and from the office of the registrar of slaves, of the number of slaves on the estate of Bel Ombre, distinguishing the males from the females, and the creole from foreign, in each year, from 1814 to the latest period, with the names of the proprietors at each period; specifying also the number of slaves born, dying, purchased or sold, and the names of the persons from whom bought, or to whom sold, and the ages, sexes and country of the slaves thus transferred; I have the honour to acquaint you, that the said returns having been completed and laid before his Excellency, he has directed them to be communicated to you, with the following observations resulting from a comparison of the two returns, upon which I am to request you will favour me with such explanations as you may have to offer.

I
Enclosure,
N° 3.

It appears by the collector's return, that Mr. Chantoiseau was proprietor of the Bel Ombre estate to the end of 1816; that, in 1814, Mr. Chantoiseau returned two hundred and twenty slaves, and in 1815, at the period of the original registry under the Order in Council of September 1814, two hundred and fifty-three; that between 1815 and 1819, no intermediate returns were given in either to the Slave Registry or Revenue Office, but that during this interval the tax-rolls of the collector were regulated and made up by the return delivered into the Registry Office in 1815, exhibiting a number of two hundred and fifty-three slaves. It appears that in 1819 Mr. Blancard, on the part of Messrs. Telfair, Waugh, Le Sage and himself, the then proprietors of Bel Ombre, returned to the Slave Registry Office four hundred and twenty-six slaves as the number then belonging to the Bel Ombre property; but by the collector's return only three hundred and seventy-eight are declared, making a difference of forty-eight between the registry and revenue returns of that year.

In 1820, the return given in to the Revenue Office exhibits four hundred and twenty-six slaves, agreeing with that delivered to the Slave Registry Office in 1819. In 1821 the tax-roll of 1820 appears to have served for the collection of the slave taxes; and by the return given in 1822 to the Revenue Office, the number appears to have been reduced to four hundred and nineteen, making a difference of seven between the return of 1820 and that of 1822.

In 1822, one of the periods of triennial returns at the Slave Registry Office, no return of the Bel Ombre slaves appears to have been recorded in that office.

In 1823, the Revenue Office return exhibits only three hundred and sixty slaves as belonging to the Bel Ombre estate, or a diminution of fifty-nine since the last year.

In 1824, the Revenue Office return amounts to three hundred and eighty-eight, making an increase of twenty-eight during the twelvemonth.

In 1825, the next period of triennial returns at the Slave Registry Office, three hundred and eighty-seven slaves are returned to that office, and three hundred and seventy-two only, or fifteen less, to the office of Internal Revenue; and in 1826, the number returned to the Revenue Office as belonging to the Bel Ombre estate, amounts only to one hundred and seventy-three, showing a diminution of one hundred and ninety-nine since last year, or two hundred and fourteen, according to the return of the Slave Registry Office.

The fifty-five slaves entered in the triennial mutation return of 1825, as transferred to Messrs. Berry, Gordon & Co. not having been comprised in the four hundred hundred and twenty-six returned in 1819, and the intermediate returns never having exceeded that number, the entire diminution of one hundred and ninety-nine, or two hundred and fourteen since 1825 still remains to be explained.

Sir,

Port Louis, Mauritius, 27th September 1826.

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 12th instant, transmitting the returns of the number of blacks of Bel Ombre, furnished by the collector of internal revenue, and two of the triennial returns of census, viz. those for 1815 and 1825, from the registrar of slaves; and requesting such explanation as I may have to offer on the observations resulting from a comparison of these returns.

Before I enter upon this subject I beg leave to make a few preliminary observations on the nature of those documents; which, although they might be thought superfluous here, may be requisite for understanding the question by persons unacquainted with the local practices and regulations.

The tax-rolls had, in their original form, not only served for the collection of the capitation tax, but had also been considered as numerical returns of the various castes and ages of which the population consists; from which an estimate might be formed of the proportion of each nation and class, white, free, coloured and black, existing in the island.

But in the year 1814, when the local government established, under Major Waugh, a registry of the black population, the returns were made to comprehend the descriptive and nominative roll of each black, as well as the numerical returns contained in the ordinary tax-rolls, which served for the collection of the revenue—one recensement being thus made to answer these double objects.

This original institution of a registry having been superseded by His Majesty's Order in Council, which came out and was put in force in 1815, the use of the tax-rolls was again limited to the information of the numerical amount of blacks subject to taxation; and the same degree of attention was not requisite in the summary details, because these could always be found when wanted, with exactness, in the census then established.

It may be observed also, that the tax-rolls and census will be found rarely to agree even in numbers. This arises partly from their being made out at different epochs of the year, and partly from a practice which was formerly prevalent, and perhaps is still so, of keeping off the tax-rolls all blacks who are lepers or idiots, or unable to work from infancy, or from decrepitude and age.

This principle appears to have been acted upon by Mr. Chantoiseau, whose tax-roll in 1814 was two hundred and twenty-one, and whose census in 1815 was two hundred and fifty-three; although, by an examination of these two documents, it will be found that he did not purchase any blacks for eight or nine years before. In fact, in the official return of 1814, after completing the number of two hundred and twenty-one, he places in his census twenty-four individuals, consisting of those blacks who were "hors d'état de travailler," and consequently not forming part of his tax-roll for that year; and adds, in a note on the face of the original census, "Ces 24 individus que je ne pense pas devoir faire nombre dans mon recensement, ainsi que je fais depuis 10 ans."

Besides those twenty-four old and infirm blacks, he appears to have omitted eight children under four years of age, thus making up the thirty-two additional on the census of 1815; for on a reference to the records of the courts, it will be seen that the whole number had been in his possession from 1807, when he bought the Bel Ombre estate and blacks at the bar of the court of First Instance, and which same blacks (with the exception of births and deaths) I purchased at the court sale in 1816, together with the estate.

Tax-rolls

Tax-rolls are only furnished when called for by proclamation; and for the period between 1815 and 1819, no tax-rolls were required, government having, by the nominative and descriptive census, acquired a more accurate return of the slave population than had ever before existed in the colony, and having therefore dispensed with the less correct document of the numerical annual tax-poll.

I.
Enclosure,
N<sup>o</sup>. 3.

Mr. Blancard, who during the period from 1816 till 1819 had the exclusive management of the Bel Ombre property, not being at present in this colony, it is out of my power to describe exactly the cause of the difference of forty-eight between the triennial census of 1819 and the tax-roll of that year. But I am inclined to suppose, that omitting the children and old and infirm people, of which thirty-two appear in the tax-rolls of Bel Ombre for 1814, and also a proportionate number of aged and children out of the eighty blacks of all ages and qualities, which he transferred from his own adjoining habitations of Ruisseau-des-Creoles and Mont Rose to Bel Ombre in the intermediate three years; and also the proportion of the same descriptions of inoperative blacks placed on Bel Ombre by Major Waugh and Captain Le Sage, who purchased, when possible, in preference, families which comprised every age; that the number in his tax-roll would be found to correspond with the census of 1819. As the books do not show, either then or at any time, the absence of these blacks, nor do they exhibit the particular omissions of old, infirm, young, which would make the difference of forty-eight, and as I was in England at the period when this census was made out, I am not aware of any further elucidation that can be given of this difference.

The tax-roll in 1820 was made out by a new manager on the sudden death of Major Waugh, (by cholera, on the 11th January of that year), who had entered on the direction of that property a few weeks before. The new manager was told by me to take the gross amount in cyphers from the census of 1819, as the surest way of making a full return for the collection of taxes, in the circumstances under which he had so unexpectedly entered on the direction of the property.

The tax-roll for 1820 served for 1821, as there was no proclamation that year calling for another.

In 1822 the tax-roll and the census will be found to correspond, allowing for the casualties between the making up of the latter in January, and of the former in August of the same year.

In 1822 an agreement was entered into between Bel Ombre and the house of Berry, Gordon & Co. for the purpose of converting the woods of Bel Ombre into ship and house timber, under the superintendence of Mr. Warwick, a builder, and his assistants from London, in consequence of which that house put on the estate fifty-nine blacks; but from the legal obstacles and impediments to the exportation of the wood, the plan was obliged to be abandoned in 1823, and the blacks were returned to that house, the agreement being on that account annulled.

In 1823 the number borne on the tax-roll is three hundred and sixty, which, under the above explanation, will be found to accord with that of the precedent year.

In 1824 the manager of Bel Ombre was changed, and his successor, then only temporarily employed, was instructed to make out the tax-rolls from the last census, which he appears to have done with sufficient accuracy, so far as the births and deaths are concerned. But being ignorant that the black apprentices were not subject to the capitation tax, he made no distinction of blacks on the tax-rolls, but placed the whole numerical amount of blacks on Bel Ombre upon that roll.

In 1825 he made the same error, for the census contains three hundred and eighteen slaves, to which were added fifty-four, the number of apprentices erroneously deemed subject to capitation; but this was corrected in 1826, when, on the removal of a great part of the blacks from Bel Ombre to my other estates, I directed the number on each to be taxed upon each of the separate properties, leaving the apprentices with the one hundred and seventy-three slaves at Bel Ombre.

The books of the estate show, on examination, the whole history of each black, their former proprietors, and times of transfer, and, in the case of creoles, the dates

No. 3.

SLAVES ON THE BEL OMBRE ESTATE,

dates of births and their parentage. The medical journals of treatment, which have been invariably kept, will show the detail of daily symptoms of diseases which occasioned death.

From these books the triennial census has been from time to time made out, and therefore the most exact account of the actual state and description of the blacks belonging to Bel Ombre, or any other of my estates, will be found in the official documents furnished by the registrar of slaves, and in the duplicate of the return furnished to that office in 1822, which I have now the honour to enclose, with a request that it may be sent back to me when his Excellency has no further occasion for it.

B. B.
See p. 46.

These recensements sufficiently explain themselves, and do not appear to require, or indeed to be susceptible of, any further elucidation with reference to your letter. But I beg to observe upon the extract from the books of the Slave Registration Department, under date 31st August 1826, enclosed in your letter of 12th September, that the absence of the triennial census for 1822 does not proceed from any fault of the proprietors of Bel Ombre, as it will be seen from the duplicate that is here enclosed, (principally in the hand-writing of Mr. Blancard), that it was regularly furnished at that triennial period, although its entrance on the registry was refused.

The reason for the refusal to admit it on the records was, that the triennial census of 1819 was wanting in some formalities, to be as complete as required by the ordinance, to entitle it to registry. The chief of these objections was, that Mr. Chantoiseau, from whom the property and slaves of Bel Ombre had been acquired, had not registered that sale in the Slave Registration Department.

It was observed in answer, that the sale was not made by Mr. Chantoiseau—it was made by the court of justice. The estate was sold because Mr. Chantoiseau, who had purchased it in 1807, had not paid for it.

I purchased it at the bar of the court in 1816, as he had purchased it at the same place nine years before; the blacks were the same in both cases, with the exception of deaths and births, and none additional had been bought by Mr. Chantoiseau in the intermediate time. But these reasons were of no avail; and thus the census of an estate, singular from the repeated judicial sales, for the unquestionable nature of the property, either as to the individual blacks themselves, or the title by which they were held, could not be admitted on the records of the Slave Registration Department, because the court of justice had not registered a sale made by itself.

Mr. Chantoiseau, it may be observed, left the colony to return to France on the sale of this property, from which he was in the French language "expropriated"; he was reduced to poverty, and had no further interest in this colony; he was looked on, not as the proprietor, but as the "detempteur" of an estate he had not paid for; and the present proprietor, who paid for it in 1816, was not aware of the deficiency in the ordinance (which it appears does not provide for such a case) until 1822, six years afterwards, when it was advanced as a reason for refusing the triennial census of that year. But this was considered a matter of little concern, as it was clear that such an informality could not in reality affect the property.

From not adverting to this return, the registrar of slaves has fallen into a most material error (which it is incumbent on me to rectify) by not allowing for the casualties which occurred between the triennial period from 1819 to 1822, one unfortunately remarkable for its mortality, all over the island, from the cholera morbus. He has inserted in black ink, as an extract from the Bel Ombre return, a total of three hundred and eighty-seven blacks; whereas on reference to the copy of the census, which he himself furnished, it will be found that the number should be only three hundred and eighteen, and that the whole of the particulars of which this total of three hundred and eighty-seven is composed are consequently erroneous.

It is the more imperative on me to make this remark, as the impression from an examination of these extracts from the slave registry books naturally must be, that these numbers were furnished by the manager of Bel Ombre in the census of 1825; but this was not the case; and a perusal of the whole of the recensements, including that of 1822, will show that the total for 1825 should be three hundred and eighteen, and that the casualties reducing it to that number are regularly and clearly recorded.

I have to regret that these explanations have been necessarily retarded, from the circumstances of my never having been myself the manager of Bel Ombre, and consequently little conversant with the details on these points; for which, in the absence of one of the former proprietors, and the decease of the other, both of whom had been the most active members of the partnership, I have been obliged to search for and compare the documents that bore upon the subject, in order to obtain the information called for by his Excellency, and which has fully occupied the time since the receipt of your letter.

I have the honour to return all the documents contained in your letter, as they are originals.

I have, &c.

EXTRACT of a Despatch (No. 81.) from Lieutenant-general the Honourable Sir G. Lowry Cole, g. c. b. to the Right honourable the Earl Bathurst, k. g.
&c. &c. &c.; dated Mauritius, 31st October 1826.

REFERRING to the Despatch which I had the honour of addressing to your Lordship on the 3d instant, and to that which I have received from your Lordship dated the 26th February last (No. 17), I have now the honour to forward, for your Lordship's information, the copies of two Proclamations, which I have issued conformably to His Majesty's Order in Council, requiring a new registration of the Slaves of this Colony.

By the first of these Proclamations, your Lordship will observe that the work of registration commenced on the 16th instant, and by the second your Lordship will be put in possession of the tarif of fees which has been established; respecting the latter, I have taken upon myself (after consulting with the council) to deviate from the original schedule of fees, in as far as relates to the charge for every search in the registry, and which, as your Lordship will remark, is now reduced to one shilling.

I also transmit to your Lordship a printed copy of the Instructions which have been circulated throughout the colony.

I have particularly warned the assistant registrars of slaves, that the greatest attention, exactitude and activity will be expected from them, and that any remissness of duty on their part will at once subject them to the serious displeasure of government. I learn from the several districts that the work of registration is going on satisfactorily, and that the inhabitants at large evince the best feelings on the occasion. I trust, therefore, as no pains have been spared by the local government, that the important object in view will be fully and completely attained, and that the measures which have been adopted here will meet with your Lordship's approbation.

And whereas it is likewise indispensable, that a particular day should be fixed for the purpose of closing the returns of the number of slaves actually possessed or held, under whatsoever title it may be, on such day, by every inhabitant bound to furnish a return, in order that the regularity and end proposed by this operation may be effectually obtained;

II.

Order in Council
for Registration of Slaves in the Mauritius.

His Excellency has decreed and decrees:—

Article 1.—The examination, inspection and verification of all personal slaves belonging to, possessed or held under any title whatsoever, by all and every person or persons resident in the town of Port Louis or its suburbs, shall begin on the 16th day of the present month of October, and shall continue until the 16th of the month of December.

Article 2.—To prevent the confusion and disorder which might result from a too great concourse of slaves at the same moment at the Registry Office, the inhabitants shall be informed, either by the registrar of slaves, or through the medium of the police, of the particular day upon which the registrar can receive their returns, and inspect and verify their slaves. On the day specified the inhabitants shall be bound to present their returns and slaves to the registrar of slaves, in the town of Port Louis, under pain, in cases of omission or negligence, of the penalties and forfeitures pronounced by the Order in Council.

Article 3.—The examination, verification and inspection of all personal and plantation slaves, in the several quarters of the Island of Mauritius, shall begin also on the 16th of the present month of October, and shall continue until the 16th of the month of December.

Article 4.—The assistant registrars of slaves, appointed for such purpose in the said quarters, shall proceed in person to every plantation or establishment to which there shall be attached more than five slaves; they shall there receive from the inhabitants their returns, and shall proceed, in the first instance, to the examination and verification of all personal slaves required to be registered as such, and afterwards to the examination and verification of the plantation slaves; and in order that the returns to be produced may be ready and perfected, and that all the slaves may be assembled for the purpose of examination and verification, as it is ordered, the assistant registrars shall give two days notice, at the least, to the owners of slaves of the day on which they intend to visit each plantation. In case of any refusal, negligence or omission on the part of the inhabitants, in case also of inattention to the notice which shall be given to them, or obstacle of any kind or description on their part to the fulfilment of the duties prescribed to the assistant registrars on each plantation, on the day they shall have fixed upon and announced for their visit and examination, the inhabitant or inhabitants offending in all or either of the above cases shall incur the pains and penalties set forth in His Majesty's said Order in Council.

Article 5.—In order to prevent the loss of time which would inevitably result from the assistant registrars visiting in person the residence of individuals possessing only a few acres of land to which may be attached no more than five slaves, the assistant registrars are authorized to require those proprietors of small estates, by a notice sent to them to that effect, to bring and present their slaves, and to give in their returns, on the days which shall be fixed for the examination and verification in each quarter of the personal slaves belonging to persons possessing no plantation. These days shall be the Mondays in each week during the period fixed for the completion of the returns, and if necessary the following day, but upon no other days: and as the most convenient spot for the assembly of the slaves to be examined, must depend upon the progress the assistant registrars shall make in their visits to the plantations in their respective quarters, as before ordered, the said assistants shall make known, every week, to the inhabitants residing in the vicinity of the estates they shall have to visit, the place where the examination and verification of the personal slaves will take place on the above-mentioned days; this notice shall be further affixed at the residence of the civil commissary two days before that on which the examination shall take place. All persons who shall neglect or refuse to obey the summons which shall be made to them by the assistant registrar, in pursuance of the present article, shall incur the pains and penalties ordained in and by the said Order in Council.

Article 6.

II.

Order in Council
for Registration of Slaves in the Ma-
ritius.

Article 6.—With a view of preventing the confusion and inaccuracy which may arise in the actual number of slaves possessed or held (under whatsoever title it may be) by each individual, and which might be occasioned by the mutations which may take place during the period accorded for the completion of the returns, particularly from sales and purchases, it becomes necessary to fix a day on which the actual number of slaves possessed or held, by virtue of any title, by every person required to furnish a return, shall be taken, for making out and completing the said return, without reference to the mutations which may have taken place in the interval between such day and the day on which the returns may be delivered to the registrar or assistant registrars, whether the mutations arise from sales or purchases, or from births, deaths or emancipations.

Article 7.—In consequence of the preceding article, it is ordered, that every person, the proprietor of any slave or slaves, or having possession of any slave or slaves, by virtue of any title whatever, in completing the return prescribed by the Order in Council of the 30th January 1826, shall insert in the said return the exact number of slaves possessed by him on the 16th October (the day on which the return shall be dated), and no others; which slaves, accident by death excepted, he shall be bound to produce to the registrar on the day which shall be appointed to him for that purpose.

Article 8.—And whereas it is prescribed by the said Order in Council, that all mutations of what nature or kind soever which shall take place among the slaves possessed or held (by virtue of any title whatever) by the inhabitants, shall be declared by the owners resident in the colony, and registered at the Slave Registry Office within one month from the day when such mutation shall take place: it is ordered by the present article, that until the expiration of the period fixed for the completion of the original returns; that is to say, until the 16th of December next, it shall not be necessary for any proprietor of slaves to declare any mutation which may happen among his slaves up to that date; but it is expressly understood, and it is further ordered, that this declaration shall be made within one month from the said 16th day of December, and that the prolongation in this particular case of the period fixed by law, granted solely with the view of preventing confusion and irregularity shall or ought not to be considered or interpreted for any purpose, or under any pretext whatever, as retarding for the future the obligation imposed on persons, owners of slaves, or possessors thereof, to make their declarations of mutations among their slaves within the delay of one month; which said mutations, after the said 16th day of December, are to be declared in like manner and form as is prescribed in and by the said Order in Council, any thing in this Proclamation contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Article 9.—The present Proclamation shall be read, published and registered in the courts; for which purpose, a copy thereof shall be addressed to His Honor the Chief Judge and Commissary of Justice.

Given at Port Louis, in the Island of Mauritius, this 11th day of October 1826.

AVIS DU GOUVERNEMENT.

II.

Order in Council
for Registration of Slaves in the Ma-
ritius.

LES Instructions suivantes ayant été rédigées en conformité des dispositions de l'Ordre en Conseil du 30 Janvier dernier, pour aider les habitans, planteurs et propriétaires d'Esclaves, à faire leurs Recensemens, et ayant reçu l'approbation de son Excellence le Gouverneur, il a plu à son Excellence d'ordonner qu'elles soient publiées pour l'information générale.

INSTRUCTIONS, fondées sur l'Ordre en Conseil du 24 Septembre 1814, pour servir à remplir les Recensemens des Esclaves d'habitation, et des Esclaves personnels (a), en conformité de l'Ordre en Conseil du 30 Janvier 1826.

Tous les Esclaves attachés ou appartenant à la même habitation, ou au même propriétaire, seront nommés et décrits au dit recensement dans les listes et sections particulières (b) auxquelles elles appartiendront respectivement, de la manière et forme suivantes ; c'est-à-dire : La feuille sera divisée par des lignes tirées de haut en bas, en neuf colonnes (c) perpendiculaires, chacune de la largeur convenable, portant en tête : Noms, Surnoms, Couleur, Emploi, Age, Taille, Pays, Marques et Parens; et pour faire apercevoir plus clairement le signalement de chaque esclave individuel, il sera tiré, à une distance convenable, autant de lignes horizontales qu'il y aura d'esclaves, lesquelles, se croisant avec les lignes perpendiculaires, formeront autant de cases, en face des noms de chaque esclave, qu'il y aura de divisions en tête. Dans la première case à gauche, on mettra le nom de baptême de chaque esclave qui a été baptisé, de celui qui ne l'a pas été, le premier nom par lequel il a été habituellement connu ou appelé. Dans la seconde case, suivant directement la ligne horizontale, le surnom ou second nom du même esclave, s'il a jamais porté aucun surnom ou second nom, et sinon, alors, au cas d'esclaves formant partie d'une famille quelconque comprise dans les listes de familles ci-dessus mentionnées, le nom du chef de famille ; et au cas d'esclaves compris dans les listes générales d'esclaves mâles, ou du sexe féminin, un nom tel que le propriétaire, ou la personne faisant remise du recensement, jugera convenable d'y mettre, pour lui servir de surnom, lequel surnom, le dit esclave et ses descendants, soit légitimes soit naturels, porteront toujours à l'avenir ; bien entendu, cependant, qu'au cas d'esclaves formant partie d'une famille, le propriétaire, ou la personne faisant la remise du recensement, pourra, s'il le juge convenable, donner tout nom de famille ou surnom autre que celui de leur chef de famille, pourvu que deux familles sur la même habitation, ou appartenant au même propriétaire, ne portent pas le même surnom dans le recensement ; mais pour tous les objets de cet edit, le surnom sous lequel chaque esclave sera originairement recensé et enregistré, continuera toujours à être le surnom de cet esclave et de ses descendants légitimes, si c'est un mâle, et de ses descendants naturels si c'est une femme, et ne pourra être changé par la suite. Dans la troisième case, suivant toujours la ligne horizontale, ayant en tête de sa colonne le mot Couleur, doit être mis le mot, noir ou noire, mulâtre ou mulâtresse, ou telles autres désignations des nuances intermédiaires de couleur suivant les cas. Dans la quatrième case, ayant en tête de sa colonne le mot emploi, devra être mis le métier ou la condition propre à chaque esclave, ou son occupation usuelle, spécifiant, dans les cas d'artisans, d'ouvriers, ou de gens de métier, l'art, ou le métier particulier, auquel il est habituellement occupé ; au cas d'esclaves domestiques, le service domestique ou département particulier dans lequel il est ordinairement employé ; et dans les cas d'esclaves ordinaires d'habitation, on pourra les porter comme

(a) Pour connaître d'une manière précise la distinction que la loi établit entre la désignation d'esclaves personnels et celle d'esclaves d'habitation, voyez ci-après l'extrait de la clause de la loi qui les définit.

(b) Ces listes et sections sont, 1° Les familles d'Esclaves, qui doivent être portées les premières, et à la suite les unes des autres dans le recensement, en commençant par le chef de chaque famille, et ensuite sa femme, ses enfants, et parens, successivement. 2° Tous les esclaves du sexe masculin qui n'appartiennent à aucune famille d'esclaves, qui seront insérés après successivement. 3° Enfin ceux du sexe féminin qui n'appartiennent à aucune famille, qui seront portés les derniers dans le recensement ; ce qui explique pourquoi il n'y a pas de colonne indicative du sexe.

(c) Il y a une dixième colonne dans le recensement personnel, pour que, dans le cas qu'un esclave ait été acquis dans les sept précédentes années, le nom du dernier propriétaire y soit inséré.

NOTICE OF THE GOVERNMENT.

THE following Instructions having been drawn up, in conformity to the regulations of the Order in Council of the 30th of last January, to assist the inhabitants, planters, and proprietors of Slaves, in making their Census-lists, and having received the approbation of his Excellency the Governor, his Excellency has been pleased to order that they may be published for general information.

II.

Order in Council
for Registration of Slaves in the Ma-
ritius.

INSTRUCTIONS, founded on the Order in Council of the 24th of September 1814, to serve to fill up the Census-lists of Plantation Slaves, and of Personal Slaves (a), in conformity to the Order in Council of the 30th of January 1826.

ALL Slaves attached or belonging to the same plantation, or to the same proprietor, shall be named and described in the said census-list, in the particular lists and sections (b) to which they respectively belong, in the following manner and form: that is to say; the sheet shall be divided by lines, drawn from top to bottom, in nine perpendicular columns (c), each of a convenient breadth, and headed Names, Surnames, Colour, Employment, Age, Stature, Country, Marks, and Relatives; and more clearly to cause the description of each individual slave to be distinguished, at a convenient distance there shall be drawn as many horizontal lines as there are slaves, which, crossing the perpendicular lines, shall form as many squares in front of the name of each slave, as there are divisions at the head. In the first square, to the left, shall be placed the Christian name of each slave who has been baptized, and the first name of any one who has not been baptized by which he has been habitually known or called. In the second square, following directly the horizontal line, the surname or second name of the same slave, if he have ever borne any surname or second name; and if not, then, in the case of slaves forming part of any family whatsoever comprised in the lists of families above mentioned, the name of the chief of the family; and, in the case of slaves comprised in the general lists of male or female slaves, a name such as the proprietor, or person making out the census-list, shall deem proper to place there to serve for a surname, which surname the said slave and his descendants, whether legitimate or natural, shall bear in future; well understood however, that in the case of slaves forming part of a family, the proprietor, or the person drawing out the census-list, shall, if he deems it expedient, give any family name or surname other than that of the chief of their family, provided that two families on the same plantation, or belonging to the same proprietor, do not bear the same surname in the census-list; but, for all objects of this edict, the surname under which each slave shall originally be registered and enrolled on the census-list shall always continue to be the surname of that slave, and of his legitimate descendants, if it be a male, and of his natural descendants if it be a female, and it shall not be capable of being afterwards changed. In the third square, always following the horizontal line of which the column is headed by the word Colour, must be inserted the word male black or female black, male mulatto or female mulatto, or such other designation of the intermediate shades of colour, according as the case may be. In the fourth square, of which the column is headed by the word Employment, must be put the trade or condition peculiar to each slave, or his usual occupation, specifying in the case of artisans, workmen, or persons of a trade, the art or particular trade in which he is habitually occupied; in the case of domestic slaves, the domestic service or particular

(a) In order precisely to know the distinction which the law makes between personal slaves and plantation slaves, we refer to the annexed extract of the clause of the law which defines them.

(b) These lists or sections are, 1st, The families of the Slaves, which ought to be inscribed the first, and in succession one after the other, in the census-list, beginning with the head of each family, and afterwards noting his wife, his children and parents successively. 2dly, All the Slaves of the male sex who belong to no family of slaves, who must afterwards be inserted successively. 3dly, and lastly, Those of the female sex who belong to no family, who must be inscribed the last in the census list, which explains the reason that there is no column indicative of sex.

(c) There is a tenth column in the personal census-list, to the end, that in case of the acquisition of a slave got in the seven preceding years, the name of the last proprietor may be therein inserted.

comme noirs de pioche, ou manœuvres seulement. Dans la cinquième cas, ayant en tête de sa colonne le mot Age, on doit insérer l'age de l'esclave, selon la connaissance ou croyance du propriétaire ou autre personne faisant remise du recensement. Dans la huitième cas, ayant en tête de sa colonne le mot Marques, on devra mettre si l'esclave a quelques cicatrices, ou autre marques, sur la figure, ou sur tout autre partie du corps, comme les esclaves Africains en ont ordinairement, et qu'on appelle généralement marques du pays (e); ou s'il a quelques-unes de ces marques ou brûlures usitées en quelques colonies pour reconnoître plus facilement à qui appartient un noir qui pourroit être trouvé marron, &c.; ou s'il a quelque singularité, defectuosité, ou difformité du corps, remarquable; toutes lesquelles devront être spécifiées, avec une exactitude convenable, de manière à faire mention au moins de la partie de la figure ou du corps où paraissent les dites marques, defectuosités, ou autres singularités. Et enfin dans la neuvième et dernière cas, ayant en tête de sa colonne le mot Parens, devra être mis le degré de parenté qui existe entre l'esclave et le chef de famille, dont la section de la liste des familles à laquelle appartiendra le dit esclave portera le nom, comme il a été dit ci-dessus, avec tels autres détails de généalogie ou de parenté que la propriétaire ou celui qui fournit le recensement jugera nécessaire d'y ajouter (f). In the fifth square, of which the column is headed by the word Age, the age of the slave must be inserted according to the knowledge or belief of the proprietor, or other person drawing up the census-list. In the sixth square, of which the column is headed by the word Stature, must be placed the exact height of the slave, in English feet and inches, according to an effective measurement (d), which measurement, in the case of children, or of those who have not attained their complete growth, must be repeated previously to the drawing up of each biennial census-list which may afterwards take place. In the seventh square, of which the column is headed by the word Country, must be inserted not only if the slave is an African or a Creole, or of any other country, but also, in case he be an African, the name of the country, or of the region of Africa whence he was brought; and if he be a Creole, the name of the colony where he was born or whence he was brought, according to the knowledge or belief of the proprietor, or other person who draws up the census-list. In the eighth square, of which the column is headed by the word Marks, it must be stated if the slave has any scars or other marks on the face, or any other part of the body, as is the case in general with the African Slaves, and which are commonly called marks of the country (e); or if he has any of those marks or burns used in some colonies, the more easily to discover to whom a black may belong who may be found as a maroon, &c.; or if he has any remarkable singularity, defect, or deformity of body; all of which ought to be specified with a proper accuracy, in such a manner as at least to mention the part of the face or body where the said marks, defects, or other singularities are apparent. And finally, in the ninth and last square, of which the column is headed by the word Relatives, must be noted the degree of relationship which exists between the slave and the chief of the family whose name is borne by the section of the list of the families to which the said slave may belong, as has been stated above, with such other details of pedigree or relationship as the proprietor, or he who furnishes the census-list, may judge necessary to add thereunto (f). At the end of each of those census-lists shall be placed, written in full letters, the sum total of the slaves belonging to the plantation, or in the case of personal slaves to the proprietor (g).

One of these books, or stitched leaves, shall be intituled, "The Register of Plantation Slaves"; the other, "The Register of Personal Slaves, or not attached thereto." In the first of these books, or stitched sheets, the names and descriptions of all the slaves which belong particularly to such or such plantations, and who labour there, and are attached thereto, shall be inscribed and registered in the manner which shall be hereinafter specified. In the second of these books or stitched sheets, in like manner, the names and descriptions of all the slaves employed in the island shall be inscribed and registered, whether engaged in domestic labours, or in mechanic arts or trades, or in the navigation, or the formation of the equipments of the ships or boats which belong to the harbours of the said island, and of those slaves who are hired by their proprietors upon plantations which do not belong to them, (f) It must be observed, that it is not necessary to fill up this column except in the case of slaves forming part of a family. And when there shall be individuals of the same family of slaves, and placed on the census-list by the same master, some as plantation slaves and others as personal slaves, mention must be made of that relationship in the column of relatives, on the two census-lists of plantation slaves and of personal slaves respectively.

(g) With respect to the slaves who shall become maroons at the time of the drawing up of the census-list, they must be noted therein, (mentioning in the column of names that they are maroons,) except the designation of stature and of marks, which, immediately after their return, shall be filled up by the assistant or clerk of the registrar, to whom the blacks, without delay, shall be sent for that purpose.
