Government House, Antigua, 12th July 1827.

MY LORD,

REFERRING to the Earl Bathurst's Dispatch of the 4th April last, and to my Letter in reply, of the 29th May,

I have now the honour to transmit to your Lordship the several Returns required by the House of Commons, and called for in the Dispatch of the 1st September 1825.

I have, &c.

(signed) PATRICK ROSS.

The Right Honourable
Lord Viscount Goderich,
&c. &c. &c.

17 Enclosures.

Custom House, Antigua, 22d Nov. 1825.

SIR,

I HAVE the honour to acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 15th instant, calling upon the Comptroller and myself to furnish certain Returns of Slaves imported and exported from this Island since the year 1821. I should, with much satisfaction, have paid the most prompt obedience to your requisition, by furnishing the Returns agreeably to the Form specified in your letter, but which it is not in my power to do; from there being no record in my office from which to frame a Report of the number or description of Slaves brought into or carried from this Island; and I think it proper to inform your Honour further, what is my practice upon the bringing in or carrying away Slaves from hence, and which will show your Honour the impossibility of ascertaining the number of either those Slaves brought, or those carried away: upon the former of these occasions, the masters or mistresses, upon the landing of the Slave or Slaves, bring them before me at the Custom House, for my inspection, with the certificates of registration from their domicile, which I carefully compare with the Slaves, to see that they agree; this certificate of registration is left in my office until the owner is about to depart again from the Island; when he calls for the same, with the Slave a second time, and my repeating the examination to see that they agree, I then indorse the certificate and deliver it to the owner, and send a copy of it to the "Registrar of Slaves," who is the proper depository of the same. Upon the application of owners to take Slaves off the Island, I oblige the party so applying to me to give a bond in the penalty of £.50 sterling for each Slave, (which bond I oblige the Captain of the vessel taking the Slaves away to join in) for the duly landing of the Slave or Slaves in the British Island, for which a license previously granted describes, and which bond is kept in my possession, to be put in force if necessary, until a certificate is obtained from the Collector of His Majesty's Customs in said Island or Colony specified in the license; but immediately upon such certificate being produced to me, the bond is cancelled as a matter of course, in point of fairness to the parties executing it, and it not being necessary to do so, no record further of the transaction remains in my office.

I have, &c.

(signed) Geo. Wyke, Collector.

To His Honour
The Commander-in-Chief,
&c. &c. &c.

Marriages legally solemnized between Slaves.

THE necessity consequent upon the death of the late rector of St. John's, of directing a considerable portion of my attention to the spiritual concerns of that parish, added to numerous other unusual and urgent demands of a professional nature upon my time, especially those occasioned by the last visit of the lord bishop of the diocese to this island, prevented me from attending immediately to the directions contained in your communication of the 21st May. I have since met with considerable delays in obtaining the requisite information from different parishes; and have still to regret that the information from the parish of St. John's is not quite complete. I have thought it right to transmit it as it is, that, if it should be considered sufficient, further delay may be avoided.

I have, &c.

ANTIGUA : N° 5.

SIR,

St. John's, Antigua, 23d May 1827.

IN obedience to the commands of his Excellency the Governor, conveyed to me in your letter of the 21st instant, I have the honour to enclose copies in triplicate of such laws of this island as relate to the marriage of Slaves, and to the separation of Slave children from their parents, by sale or otherwise.

As the above provisions will be found very imperfectly to meet the meaning of the terms used in your letter, it may be proper to observe, that there is no existing law in this colony which makes marriage between Slaves a civil or religious contract, nor any law to prevent the separation of husband and wife. The enclosed Extracts appear to be the only provisions which bear upon the subject of your letter.

I have, &c.
(signed) Tho^s Lane,
Colonial Secretary and Clerk of the Crown.

Captain E. Townsend, Private Secretary.

ACT of the Leeward Islands, 38th of George III. N° 36.

AND whereas the marriage of Slaves cannot give any particular right either to the contracting parties or to their children; and it being unnecessary, and even improper, to enforce the celebration of any religious rites among the Slaves in order to sanctify contracts, the faithful performance of which can be looked for only by a regular improvement in religion, morality and civilization, and should not be immediately enforced by any compulsory methods, lest the violation of sacred vows be too often added to the crime of infidelity. Section 22.

And whereas it seems more eligible to encourage than compel such improvement in religion, morality and civilization among such Slaves, for the purposes aforesaid, and for other good purposes; be it therefore enacted by the authority aforesaid, that every owner and director of any Slave on any estate within the Leeward Islands shall, within two months after the publication of this Act, and also on the 1st day of January every year, convene and assemble together the Slaves under his direction, and inquire which of them have a husband or wife, or more than one; and if an acknowledgment be made, in consequence of such inquiry, of more than one husband or wife, then such owner or director shall compel such Slave making such acknowledgment to elect some one Slave only as his or her husband or wife; and when such election is made such owner or director shall enter the same in a book to be kept for that purpose, and make the same as public as possible, by convening, once in every twelve months, all the Slaves upon such plantation, and reading to them the same in a distinct and audible voice; at the same time extolling the good behaviour of those who have been faithful to their engagements, and reprobating the misconduct of those who have acted to the contrary, doing his utmost to keep together in harmony the parties who have made such election, and to encourage all the other Slaves of which he is manager, master or director, as they shall arrive at the age of maturity to make such election as aforesaid, and adhere as strictly as possible to the same. And every owner or director of any female Slave who shall have a child while she preserves her fidelity to such engagement as aforesaid, or is reputed so to do, shall in six weeks after the birth of such child, if the same be then living, pay and give to the mother of such child four dollars, and the same sum, with one dollar more, for every other child she shall bear and have under the same circumstances; and if any owner or director shall omit in any respect to comply with and fulfil the direction of this clause, he shall forfeit the sum of fifty pounds for every such omission.

I certify the above to be a true Copy.

Colonial Secretary.

And on the 16th January 1823, he was brought up before the Judges of the court of Common Pleas; and having proved his freedom, was discharged from the custody of the Marshal, as will appear upon the records of the Secretary's office.
12 Jan. 1826 -	31 Jan. 1826 -	Jack, alias Jack Martin, black man, was, on the 12th January 1826, committed to gaol as a runaway Slave, the property of Montague M. Cumming; but having claimed his freedom, upon the plea of his having gone to England and served on board one of His Majesty's ships, he was, on the 26th of January in the same year, brought up before the Judges of the court of Common Pleas, and by order remanded to gaol, there to remain until claimed by his said owner; as will also appear upon the records of the Secretary's office. The said Jack, alias Jack Martin, was subsequently seized by Charles Chipchase, a waiter in the Customs, and by the Admiralty Court brought to adjudication, and ordered to be restored; when an appeal was obtained, and after being appraised, was turned over to the Collector of the Customs, with whom he has remained ever since.

Several others have been committed to gaol by the Magistrates residing out of the town, who claimed to be free, and can be accounted for by the Marshal and Secretary's records; they not having come under my cognizance, as Clerk of Police in St. John's.

Slaves escheated to the Crown.

SIR,

THE Return, in triplicate, required by your Excellency of Slaves escheated to the Crown, setting forth particulars according to the form received, from January 1st, 1821, to December 31st, 1826, I have now the honour of forwarding herewith. In addition to those contained in the Return as coming within the periods of time specified, I have to inform your Excellency that there are seven others who had been in the possession of my predecessor, Mr. J. N. Kerby, as cancel receiver, as an escheat to the Crown, formerly the property of the late Mary Thaxter, who died intestate and leaving no lawful heir, six of whom have been under my care and protection since 1820. One, an old female, named Frances, only made herself known to me three years ago, upon being very ill, and requiring both maintenance and medical care; two of the number are very old and infirm; a third a lunatic; the remaining four are of one family, a mother and three sons, the eldest of whom, about 25 years of age, is the most unprincipled young man I ever met with in my experience; his life, I may say, is spent in the commission and continued repetition of thefts and other crimes, and undergoing the punishment awarded by the Magistrate for his never ending offences: his mother is also of a very bad character, and his two brothers of the like description; but it is to be hoped they may reform, not being more than 10 and 12 years of age. I would wish to have, through your Excellency, instructions from His Majesty's Government how these people are to be disposed of, or dealt with, as well as those contained in the Return, that some provision may be made for their future support, and that I may be reimbursed the balance which I have expended beyond the very limited sum received in my official capacity. I beg to refer your Excellency to the copies of two letters written to Sir Benjamin D'Urban, when in the administration of this Government, N° 1 and 2. N° 1 will show that I was restrained by the mandate of the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury from making disposal of the Slaves contained in the Return, without receiving directions from their Lordships, but which never arrived. By N° 2, it will appear that I made, on the 27th day of August 1823, the Return required in consequence of the Address to His Majesty from the House of Commons on the subject of escheated Slaves. All these Slaves, though disqualified from want of character, inability, and disinclination, old age and other infirmities, from gaining a livelihood and supporting themselves if left to their own control, yet imagine they are of right entitled to freedom, and to be supported by his Majesty's Government, in like manner with the Africans placed under the care of the Collector. I should certainly recommend that they might, for their own future welfare, for the benefit of society, and to save the unnecessary expense of supporting them in idleness, and with the view of checking their further progress in vice, be disposed of by sale. I am sorry I cannot now continue to speak in the same favourable terms of Rachael and her children, as I did in my letter to Sir Benjamin D'Urban, marked N° 1, as they no longer merit my good opinion.

I am, &c.

His Excellency
Sir Patrick Ross, Governor,
&c. &c. &c.

SIR,

29th July 1823.

I HAVE the honour of acknowledging your Excellency's letter of yesterday, with an inclosure from Mr. Harrison of the Treasury, stating, in answer to your Excellency's letter of the 31st of October, (requesting instruction with regard to the disposal of certain Slaves escheated to the Crown,) "that the Lords
" Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, before their Lordships give any
" directions as to the disposal of the Slaves in question, require to be furnished
" with

“ with information as to their respective ages, and their qualification to act as domestic Slaves, or to be appointed to some trade or occupation.”

In obedience to your Excellency's commands, that I should furnish the information desired in Mr. Harrison's letter, I have made the necessary inquiries, and find that Rachel and her three children, the Slaves late in the possession of Mrs. Octavia Kentish, formerly belonging to the late Rebecca Nanton, are respectively of the following ages, ascertained from the last registration of Slaves made in the year 1821; Rachel 41, Samuel 17, Jesse 14, and John Baptiste 12. Rachel is constitutionally weak and sickly; when able to work, her occupation that of a washerwoman; herself and children of good character (blacks), and very well calculated for domestic servants, or the males to be brought up to some trade. Three other Slaves (mulattoes), late the property of Jane Grant, free woman of colour, appear from the registration of 1821 to be respectively aged as annexed to their names; Clementina 24, Margaret 22, and John 16. These last named are the children of a white man of the name of George B. Frigarella, fisherman, a man in good circumstances, who petitioned your Excellency to be allowed to purchase his children at the price which they were appraised by the inquest jury, and which petition was granted by your Excellency, on condition that he manumitted them; but, from some reason or other, he has since declined the purchase. What these women are fit for, I am at loss to say; their characters are not good, their former owner in her life-time had them under no control or management, and I am sorry to say, they have not led very creditable lives; according to report, the lad is with his father, and I believe also follows the trade of a fisherman. I have been quite at a loss to know what to do with the women, as I do not think them calculated for domestic servants or any other service, they cannot be managed without severity, and in consequence they only do what they please, and go where they like, and except, when taken before a magistrate for some misconduct, I rarely hear of them, on such occasions they never fail to call upon me to see that justice is fairly dealt out to them.

I am, &c.

His Excellency
Sir Benjamin D'Urban, Captain-General,
&c. &c. &c.

(Copy.)—N^o 2.

SIR,

St. John's, August 27, 1823.

I HAVE the honour of acknowledging your Excellency's letter of the 24th inst. together with the copy of a circular from His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Colonies, requiring, in consequence of an Address of the Honourable House of Commons to His Majesty, the following information; viz. Accounts of all Slaves in the possession of His Majesty's Government in any of the Colonies; of all Expenses incurred for their maintenance since January 1815; and of all Slaves having become the property of the Crown by escheat, or otherwise who had been sold.

In compliance with your Excellency's commands, that I should transmit, with the least possible delay, distinct and detailed information upon these heads, I have the honour to state, that the knowledge I possess upon the subject is confined entirely to my situation of Escheater General and Casual Receiver. To this office I was appointed in the early part of the year 1820, when I was informed by the officer of police, that there were six Slaves, formerly the property of one Mary Thaxter, which had been in the possession of my predecessor in office (Mr. Thomas Norbury Kerby), as an escheat to the Crown; it was with difficulty that I could collect them, their characters were and are very bad, and they are perpetually committing some crime; when I can keep them in possession, they are maintained by me as Casual Receiver and provided with medical care: they consist of two idle old men, a woman and her three sons; the eldest a very depraved young man, and the others children. Doctors Murray and Crawford have informed me that they have a demand against the casual receiver for upwards of 100*l.* Antigua currency, for the medical care of these persons in the life-time of the late Mr. Kerby, and which I should consider myself authorized to pay out of any funds which should come into my hands in right of my office, no other provision ever having been made for their care or support.

On the 9th of August, 1822, at a Court of Escheat, eight Slaves were found to have vested in the Crown, the former proprietors having died, leaving no lawful heirs, and without having devised or otherwise disposed of their property; four of the number have continued ever since in my possession, and been maintained by me; three of the number (mulattoes), their father petitioned your Excellency to be allowed to purchase their freedom; but I understand he has been since deterred from so doing from the badness of their character. The remaining one, making the eighth, is an old blind man, who has been taken care of by some of his friends, but to whom I consider myself accountable for his support when called upon. No Slave which has become the property of the Crown by escheat has been sold since I held the office, and from due inquiry I am informed none in that situation have been sold since January 1815.

Relief of the Poor.

THE Vestry of the parish of St. John raise a tax every year, under an Act of this island, for the maintenance of ministers and the poor ; there are no poor rates. A tax is also assessed on merchandizes imported and sold within the island, the property of non-resident traders, in relief of the burdens of the parish of St. John. The maintenance of the poor is weekly distributed to them ; there are no free-coloured or black paupers provided for by the parish.

N. B. The free coloured or free black are not taxed for the support of the poor ; Slaves are supported by their owners. These remarks apply to the whole Island.

N° 4.

ARTICLES des Lettres Patentes de 1723, connues sous le Nom de Code Noir, relatifs aux Mariage des Esclaves.

- Article 5. Défense aux sujets blancs, de l'un et de l'autre sexe, de contracter mariage avec les noirs, à peine de punition et amende arbitraire.
Défense aux maîtres de vivre en concubinage avec leurs Esclaves, sous peine de privation de l'Esclave et des enfans qui en seront nés. Toutefois l'homme noir, affranchi ou libre, qui n'étoit pas marié pendant son concubinage avec son Esclave, peut l'épouser suivant les formes prescrites; l'Esclave sera affranchie par ce moyen, et les enfans sont rendus libres et légitimes.
- Article 6. Les solemnités prescrites par L'Ordonnance de Blois, et par la Declaration de 1639, pour les mariages, seront observées, tant à l'égard des personnes libres, que des Esclaves, sans néanmoins que le consentement du père et de la mère de l'Esclave y soit nécessaire, mais celui du maître seulement.
- Article 7. Défense très expresse aux Curés de procéder aux mariages des Esclaves, s'ils ne font apparoir du consentement de leurs maîtres; défense aussi aux maîtres d'user aucune contrainte sur leurs Esclaves pour les marier contre leur gré.
- Article 8. Les enfans qui naîtront des mariages entre les Esclaves, seront Esclaves, et appartiendront aux maîtres des femmes Esclaves, et non à ceux de leur mari, si les maris et les femmes ont des maîtres différens.
- Article 9. Si le mari esclave a épousé une femme libre, les enfans, tant mâles que femelles, suivent la condition de leur mère et sont libres comme elle, nonobstant la servitude de leur père; et si le père est libre et la mère esclave, les enfans sont Esclaves pareillement.

NUMBER of Slaves for whom the Colonial Duty has been remitted, including Children.		TOTAL Number of Slaves Manumitted.	REMARKS.
Males.	Females.
*			The Colonial Duty on the manumission of a Slave, as fixed by the ordinance regulating the Taxes for each year, was 1,980 livres, about 42 l. 2 s. 6 d. sterling, which could be reduced at the discretion of the Governor. The amount was however levied according to the means of the parties, and it very rarely occurred that more than one half was ever exacted, and frequently less than half. The good character and industrious habits of the individual was always favourably considered.

- - -	- - -	38
15	24	147	The Duty in 1824 was reduced to 600 livres, 12 l. 15 s. 4 d. sterling, which was still reducible at the Governor's pleasure; and it will be seen, from the small amount received, that the sum levied was very trifling. After the month of March 1824, no Colonial Duty was levied on Manumissions, except for foreign Slaves. The amount received in 1825 was entirely on account of Slaves belonging to Martinique, who were manumitted by their Owners in St. Lucia. Slaves.

Vol. I.

(N° 16.) Ordonnance du Roi, concernant la discipline de l'Eglise, et l'état et qualité des Nègres Esclaves aux Isles de L'Amérique; du mois de Mars 1685.

Art. X. Les solemnités prescrites par l'Ordonnancé de Blois, et par la déclaration de 1639, pour les mariages, seront exécutées tant à l'égard des personnes libres que des esclaves, sans néanmoins que le consentement du père et de la mère de l'esclaves, y soit nécessaire, mais celui du maître seulement.

XI. Défendons très expressement aux Curés de procéder aux mariages des esclaves s'ils ne font apparoir due consentement de leurs maîtres; defendons aussi aux maîtres d'user d'aucune contrainte sur leurs esclaves pour les marier contre leur gré.

XII. Les enfans qui naitront des mariages entre les esclaves, seront esclaves, et appartiendront aux maîtres des femmes esclaves, et non à ceux de leurs maris, si le mari et la femme ont des maîtres différens.

XIII. Voulons que si le mari esclave a épousé une femme libre, les enfans, tant mâles que filles, soient de la condition de leur mère, et soient libres comme elle, nonobstant la servitude de leur père; et que si le père est libre et la mère esclave, les enfans soient esclaves pareillement.

XLVII. Ne pourront être saisis et vendus séparément le mari et la femme et leurs enfans impubères, s'ils sont sous la puissance d'un même maître, déclarons nulles les saisies et ventes qui en seront faites; ce que nous voulons avoir lieu dans les aliénations volontaires, sous peine contre ceux qui feront les aliénations, d'être privés de celui ou de ceux qu'ils auront gardés, qui seront adjugés aux acquéreurs, sans qu'ils soient tenus de faire aucun supplément de prix.

Extracts from the Slave Law passed in Council on 8 February 1826, relating to Marriages of Slaves.

Book 1st, Chap. 1st.—Property in Law.

10. The husband and wife and children under the age of puberty, the mother and the children under the age of puberty, though born out of wedlock, and when the mother is dead, the reputed father and his children under the age of puberty, shall not, when they belong to the same owner, be taken under an execution and sold, otherwise than in one and the same lot, all seizures to the contrary are declared illegal and void; neither shall they be separated when sold, or transferred by voluntary agreement. In the latter case, the transfer of part of the family shall be taken and considered as a transfer of the whole. The vendor or other person transferring shall be deprived of that part of the family which he shall have retained retained, and the same shall, without any increase of price, or additional valuable consideration belong to the purchaser.

The slaves may claim the enforcement of this regulation, by applying to the procureur-general, to the seneschal, to the procureur du roi, to his substitutes, or the commissary of the quarter.

If the creditor shall seize the husband or wife, or the mother without the remainder of the family, the owner shall be bound to point out and produce those remaining, that they may be sold in one lot, on pain of forfeiting their value in favour of the purchaser of the slave seized, if the seizure be otherwise valid.

Book Second : Slaves as Subjects.—Chap. 1st.—Rights in Society.
Part 1st.—The Right of Marriage.

58. Marriages among slaves shall be subject to the same law as marriages among free persons; the same forms shall be observed with respect to both, with the following exception :

A marriage among slaves may be celebrated by any Christian minister, or by any public teacher of religion approved by the Governor, and engaged in no other secular calling than that of a schoolmaster. The marriage may take place in the presence of two free witnesses only, but the presence of two is an essential condition. The consent of the father and mother of the slave is dispensed with. The owner, his attorney, guardian, or other representative, shall give his consent to the marriage in writing; in case of refusal on the part of the owner or his representative, either of the slaves desirous of marrying may petition the procureur-general, who shall order summary notice to be served upon the owner or representative, requiring him upon a given day, which shall be within three weeks from the date of the procureur-general's order, to appear before him, and in default of his appearing, or if on his appearing he should assign an insufficient reason for his refusal, the procureur-general shall grant them his permission to marry without the owner's consent.

59. In lieu of a publication of banns, the slave may obtain a marriage licence from the commissary of the quarter, who is authorized to grant the same on the applicants producing the written consent of the owner or his representative, or a permission in writing from the procureur du roi.

60. All persons celebrating marriages between slaves shall report the same in writing to the procureur-general, within a fortnight from the day of the marriage.

The Report shall contain,—

1. The names and ages of the parties.
2. The names of the owners.
3. The date of the marriage.
4. The names of the witnesses.

It shall be signed by the witnesses if they are able to write, if not, mention shall be made thereof in the report, which shall be wholly written by the clergyman, or the person officiating, and signed by him.

The minister or other authorized teacher celebrating a marriage without a licence or publication of banns, or failing to make the requisite report to the procureur-general within the time above specified, shall be fined in a sum which shall not be less than one hundred livres, nor exceed one thousand livres.

61. The procureur-general shall insert this report in a register, which he shall keep for that purpose, and which shall be collated with the reports, and signed by the first President once in six months,

AGE.	RELATION.	OBSERVATIONS.
unknown	none	{ Betzy died about two years ago. Négresse and Solitude live in Castries, and work there for their own benefit. Since their confiscation no complaint whatever has been lodged at the Procureur du Roi's against them. Solitude has a child eight months old, named Eufrosia.
ditto	ditto	{ Jeanne Souffre died about two years ago. Melie Colas is still in the service of Mr. Chauton, who forfeited her.
ditto	{ mother and daughter }	{ These two women live in the bourg of Soufriere, where they work for their own benefit. They belonged to the succession of Miss Fatime Guillette, who died insolvent, and therefore the confiscation was ordered with a proviso in favour of the creditors of the succession for their rights (if they have any.) They behave themselves well.
ditto	none	- Died eight months ago.
ditto	ditto	{ Zelie lives in Castries and works for her own benefit. She behaves herself well.
ditto	ditto	{ Marie Reine lives in Castries. She belonged to her father, a free man, who forfeited her. Her behaviour is of the very worst description; above all towards her father, who is old, and whom she has abandoned.
ditto	ditto	{ These two negroes are cultivated. No complaint has been lodged against them.
